

sex talk.

answers to your questions about sex and relationships special wildfact edition!

- #7: UA's rank in the 2012 Trojan Sexual Health Report Card, which scores colleges and universities based on sexual health resources and information available to students
- #72: ASU's ranking in the same report
- 71%: Percent of UA students who had vaginal or anal sex in the past school year, according to the 2012 Health & Wellness Survey (n=2,406)
- 87%: Percent who had none, one or two partners in the past school year
- 4%: Percent who had 6 or more partners in the past school year
- 63%: Percent of UA students who usually or always use a condom, among those who are sexually active
- 85%: Percent of UA students who said they would be accepting of a friend or family member who is LGBT
- 81%: Percent who believe that individuals who are LGBT should have the same rights as heterosexual people
- 3,000: Number of subscribers who receive SexTalk via email each week during the academic year

- 1995: Year the SexTalk column started answering questions on sex and relationships here at the UA
- 85%: Chance that a woman who is sexually active and not using contraception has of becoming pregnant within a year
- 86%: Percent by which the recent decline in teen pregnancy is attributable to increased contraceptive use; the remaining 14% is due to more teens delaying sex
- 5%: Percent of U.S. high schools who made condoms available to students, as of 2006
- $14.⁹⁹: Cost of a 100-pack of condoms at the Campus Health Pharmacy
- $0: Cost of a sample pack of condoms between 12-2pm at Campus Health during Free Condom Fridays
- 1918: Year that Campus Health was founded at the UA; also the year the U.S. Congress established time zones

Have a question? Send it to sextalk@email.arizona.edu

SexTalk is written by Lee Ann Hamilton, M.A., CHES, David Salafsky, MPH, and Carrie Hardesty, BS, CHES, health educators at The UA Campus Health Service.